

Become a Shareholder in the Library Company with a one-time investment of $200. When you become a Shareholder, you provide an invaluable link between the shareholders of our storied past—including outstanding figures like Elisha Kent Kane, Anne Hampton Brewster, and of course, Benjamin Franklin—and the future generations who will enjoy and learn from our irreplaceable collections. Your contribution will enable us to continue serving the public, free of charge, with wide-ranging reference services and quality cultural programming.

In addition to a signed, frame-ready share certificate, every new Shareholder receives:

- Opportunity to consult with membership department on share selection. Shareholders may also request a personal history of their share.
- Subscription to our newsletter, the Occasional Miscellany, and the Annual Report
- A copy of At the Instance of Benjamin Franklin: A Brief History of the Library Company of Philadelphia
- 20% discount on Library Company publications and merchandise
- Invitations to exhibition openings, lectures, and special programs
- Invitation to the Annual Dinner and Annual Meeting

In following years, annual dues determine benefits. Shareholder dues start at $100.

If you would like to support the Library Company, but do not wish to become a Shareholder, you may become a Friend. Dues are just $75 per year.

- I wish to become: A SHAREHOLDER. Enclosed is my one-time payment of $200 to purchase a share. (This initial contribution will be added to the Library Company's endowment. Annual dues paid in future years will support the operating budget.)
- A FRIEND. Enclosed is my payment of $75 for the first year's dues.
